Information on the Bail Schedule

The following schedule is the presumptive bail to be set when an individual is placed in custody for a criminal offense in Monterey County. A judicial officer may set bail at an amount different than the bail schedule in any individual case. In doing so, the judicial officer shall consider the factors in Penal Code section 1275 such as the protection of the public, the seriousness of the charged crimes, the previous criminal record of the defendant and the probability the defendant will appear in court.

Questions concerning the application of this bail schedule to any particular arrestee may be made to the Presiding Judge or designee during the work week. After work hours, the ON CALL DUTY judge is available through the Monterey County Sheriff's Office Dispatch via the ON CALL DUTY cell phone number.

For crimes, enhancements or aggravating factors not listed on the schedule, the presumptive bail for each is $10,000 for felonies and $3500 for misdemeanors.

Bail Stacking - Arrests for More Than One Crime

Arresting agencies and detention facilities are directed to follow these guidelines when booking persons for more than one crime and/or warrant.

1. When a person is booked on two or more crimes, the bail shall be set at the crime with the highest bail amount.
2. When a person is booked on two or more crimes that are either "serious felonies" as defined in Penal Code Section 1192.7(c) and 1192.8 or "violent felonies" as defined in Penal Code Section 667.5(c), the bail amounts shall be stacked and added together.
3. When a person is booked on a crime or crimes and has outstanding warrants, the warrant amounts shall be stacked in addition to the schedule bail amounts.

Bail Amounts on Arraignment in Court

At first appearances and arraignments in court, the judicial officer may exercise discretion to lower or raise bail based on the actual charges filed by the District Attorney, enhancements and prior convictions alleged and prior strikes filed.

Jail OR Policy Adopted July 14, 2004

The policy approved by the judges on July 14, 2004, regarding the release by the Sheriff of individuals on their own recognizance remains in full force and effect. (See Appendix A.)

Prisoners Released OR with Out-of-County Holds

Whenever the court orders an individual to be released on his or her own recognizance and the individual has an out-of-county hold, the Sheriff will comply with Directive Order No. 02-05. (See Appendix B.)

(As Approved by Judges - July 14, 2004)

- A. Inmates that meet the following requirements shall be released on their own recognizance after booking.
1. Able to understand the condition of the OR release agreement and agree to sign the agreement to appear in court.
  2. Provide formal identification (i.e. California ID card, Driver's License or Matricula Consular card) or if jail employees are able to establish identification through a prior booking photograph, personal recognition or positive identification from the DOJ fingerprint identification printout.
  3. Able to provide a residence address in the State of California.
- B. All misdemeanor fresh and misdemeanor warrant arrests shall be OR'd except for the following:
1. Penal Code charges: 166(c)(1) or 166(c)(2), 243(e)(1), 273.5, 273.6, 646.9, and 647.6.
  2. Persons arrested for charges 23152(a) and 23152(b) with one or more priors.
- C. The following felony fresh arrests shall be considered for release on their own recognizance:
1. 470, 475, 476, 496A, and 594 of the Penal Code.
  2. To be released on OR with felony charges the inmates must have a residence address within Monterey County and meet the identification guideline above.
  3. No felony warrant arrests shall be OR'd.
- D. Intoxicated inmates shall remain in custody until sober unless there is a responsible adult to whom the inmate can be released.
- E. Probation Violations:
1. Misdemeanors: Bail/OR determinations for individuals arrested for violating probation shall be based on the same criteria used for misdemeanors generally.
  2. Felonies: Individuals arrested for violation of felony probation shall be held on a "No Bail" status unless a bail amount has been set by warrant or other court order.
- F. Criminal History Check (CJIS): The booking person shall complete a criminal history check using the involved person display to determine if the inmate may be released on OR.
- Violent Felons: Suspects who have previously been convicted of a violent felony within the past three years shall not be released OR. Violent felony crimes include charges involving weapons, great bodily harm or sexual assault.
- G. Multiple or "NO OR" Warrants: No subject shall be released OR when arrested on three or more warrants. No inmate shall be released OR when the warrant states "NO OR."
- H. Dangerous & Non-Dangerous Defendants: Notwithstanding the above, whenever the booking officer or other jail staff has information suggesting the defendant presents a danger to the community, before releasing the defendant on his/her OR, a supervisor shall contact the on-duty judge for consideration of OR release unless the supervisor determines not to OR the subject. Furthermore, whenever a jail supervisor identifies an individual as worthy of OR release based on an evaluation of the circumstances of the offense for which the prisoner has been booked, his criminal history including FTA's, as well as any danger he might pose to the community, the supervisor may contact the on-duty judge for consideration of OR release.

Presiding Judge Directive Order No. 02-05

FILED

MAY 27, 2005

PRESIDING JUDGE
DIRECTIVE ORDER

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF MONTEREY

In the Matter of

CONTINUED DETENTION OF JAIL INMATES WHO HAVE OUT-OF-COUNTY HOLDS

ORDER DIRECTING CONTINUED DETENTION OF JAIL INMATES WHO HAVE OUT-OF-COUNTY HOLDS – PROCEDURE

Pursuant to Penal Code section 1318 and 1320, a defendant ordered released from jail on his or her own recognizance is not to be so released if the Sheriff determines that the defendant has an out-of-county hold based on an outstanding warrant, an immigration hold, a parole hold, a military hold, a 1551 out-of-state extradition hold, a U.S. Marshal's Office hold, or any other such hold, unless the release was ordered by the Court specifically notwithstanding said hold.

Whenever the Sheriff determines that an inmate with an out-of-county hold has been ordered released on his or her own recognizance, and the order for OR release does not address any existing out-of-county hold, the Sheriff will immediately make reasonable efforts to contact the judge who ordered the OR release to determine what action the Court wishes to take. If the judge indicates that, in view of the hold, the matter needs to be re-evaluated, the Court will arrange to have the matter placed back on calendar within a reasonable time, and shall cause counsel for the parties to be so notified.

If the case has been assigned for all purposes to a different judge following the OR release, any hearing re-evaluating the OR release shall be heard before the judge assigned for all purposes. This directive is made in accordance with the consensus of all judges attending the last regularly scheduled judges' meeting and it was subjected to electronic review prior to publication. It is further made in accord with the principles set out in People v. Alberto (2002) 102 Cal.App.4th 421.

If, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, the Sheriff is unable to contact the judge ordering the OR release, the Sheriff shall contact the Presiding Judge, or his or her designee, to determine what action to take. In any event, the matter should be calendared expeditiously for re-evaluation.
